

Arlington Residents Urged To Contribute As Blood Donors

Red Cross Blood Mobile Unit Here April 4-5

The Red Cross Blood Mobile Unit is coming to Arlington again on April 4 and 5, and will be at St. John's Parish Hall, Pleasant Street from one to seven P. M. Last November Arlington did not make her Quota of 250 pints. We urge all who can, to call Miss Elizabeth Rice, Arlington 5-1741-J to make an appointment.

It is of vital importance to every citizen of Arlington that the Blood Bank, which is maintained by the American Red Cross for all who need blood without any charge; should be kept full at all times. This can be accomplished only by the generosity of those who are able to give the priceless gift of their blood.

The Motor Corps make at least three trips every week to the Blood Bank at Forrest Hills, for Symmes Arlington Hospital. From March 1, 1948, when the Red Cross took over the Blood Bank, thru December 31, 1948, 166 pints of blood were delivered to our Hospital and Arlington residents received 62 pints of blood in Boston Hospitals. A total of 288 pints in all, in ten months.

Mr. Frank Kasabuski during the War, was a member of the Gallon Club of Blood Donors. He never thought he would need it for himself. But illness came to him suddenly and he was rushed to Symmes Hospital in dire need; whole blood was obtained for him thru the Red Cross and he is most grateful, that his life was saved. There are many such cases.

Veterans have sent many replacements for their relatives and friends. Dr. Richard J. Moran has accepted the Chairmanship of the Blood Donor Committee. Members of the Committee are Mrs. Arthur W. Sampson, Mrs. Russell T. Hamlet, Mrs. William W. Wills, Miss Elizabeth S. Rice, Mrs. Fred J. Donnelly, Mr. Louis Doctoroff, and Rev. Halsey I. Andrews.

Don't forget to make your appointment.

If you cannot get Miss Rice, Arl. 5-1741-J, Call Mrs. Reed, Arl. 5-0156, or Red Cross Headquarters, Arl. 5-6540.

Town Mourns Death Of John C. Keefe

The flags on Arlington's public buildings remained at half mast on Monday morning, March 14, when funeral services were conducted for John C. Keefe, 54, of 28 Alton street, veteran of World War I, and past president of the Arlington Auxiliary Police Association. Mr. Keefe passed away on Friday, March 11.

A solemn high mass of requiem celebrated at St. Agnes church, was largely attended by friends and associates of the deceased, including many members of the Auxiliary Police, and of the American Legion, of which Mr. Keefe was an active member.

Mr. Keefe was actively associated in the organizing of the AYA youth dances and many other activities for the benefit of 'teen-agers' of the community. He served with the United States army in France during the First World War. In civilian life, he was a salesman for a wholesale drug firm.

The honorary pallbearers were headed by Chief of Police Archie F. Bullock, Charles Scannell, coordinator of the Auxiliary Police, and William Sinclair, president of the latter organization.

The active pallbearers include: John Toomey, John Babine, Clarence H. Marsh, Arthur Kimball, James Forsythe, John Podgurs, Arthur O'Brien and Walter Finlay, all members of the Auxiliary Police, of which Mr. Keefe was an incorporator.

At the conclusion of the memorial mass, Joseph Barry sang the American Memorial Hymn. Rev. Justin C. Durocher officiated at the services at Mount Pleasant Cemetery.

In addition to his wife, Mrs. Anna M. (Welch) Keefe, he leaves a daughter, Judith Ann, and five sisters.

Meehan And Leary Spark Red And Gray Attack In Tourney

Choral Society is completing its plans for a benefit concert to be given for the benefit of St. James Church, at the Robbins Town Hall on the evening of April 23. Dancing will be featured following the concert.

After being forced into overtime twice in as many nights, Arlington High pucksters overpowered LaSalle Academy 6-3 in the final round to win the New England Schoolboy Championship before 6000 fans at the Providence Arena last Saturday night.

In regaining the crown they won in 1947, the Spy Ponders came by the finals the hard way. They were forced into overtime and sudden death in the first round before edging Hill House High of New Haven 4-3 on Ed Meehan's marker.

It was Meehan that again pulled the game out with a long shot at 3:42 in overtime to nip West Haven High 3-2 in the semi-final encounter.

Showing little effects of their two overtime victories the locals jumped to a quick 3-0 lead in the first period. Jackie Canniff started the fireworks with a brilliant solo that carried him around the LaSalle defense to beat goalie Eddie Rynn at 3:37 with a 15 footer.

Capt. Bill Leary, easily the outstanding player of the tourney, set up Bill Meehan for the second tally at 4:59.

This was followed up by Don O'Brien's goal at 7:02 on a pass from Ed Emery.

LaSalle fought back temporarily to close the margin by a score of 3-2 in the second period on goals by Dick O'Leary and Bob Petit both registered inside the 4 minute mark.

Bill Leary relieved the pressure for the Arlington sextet as he converted a beautiful drop pass from Eddie Robson at 10:55. But Bob Petit again put LaSalle back into the contest edging his shot past goalie Aiken at the four minute mark of the third period.

However, Leary again proved the hero of the night as he stick-handled the entire length of the rink to beat Rynn with a beautiful backhand shot. Two minutes later at 9:08 Billy Meehan scored the clincher on a pass from Robson that concluded the scoring for both clubs.

The lineup:

Arlington: Aiken, g; Emery, rd; Emmons, ld; Leary, c; Meehan, rw; Robson, lw; Spares—O'Brien, Canniff, Wright, Wyman.

LaSalle: Rynn, g; O'Leary rd; Gerlach, ld; Sweeney, c; Duffy, rw; Reall, lw; Spares—Warnock, Wholey, Petit, Sloan, Crowley, Mazzuchelli O'Connor, Pencarski, St. Laurent.

Rep. McEvoy Appointed On Judiciary Sub Committee

Representative Joseph F. McEvoy, Jr., has been appointed as a member of the sub-committee of the Joint Senate House Judiciary Committee that has been formed to make a study of the various bills that have been filed concerning violations of parking regulations and to prepare a new bill that will improve the present situation.

Representative McEvoy has introduced two bills in regard to parking violations (1) to make such violations non-criminal in nature and (2) change the present law so that violators of parking regulations will not have to appear in Court until after the fifth offence; whereas now they must appear in Court after the third offence.

These two bills have been received very favorably by the members of the sub-committee and it is believed that the purpose and objectives of Representative McEvoy's bills will be adopted by the sub-committee in its report and recommendations.

Elected Candidates Remain Safe In Recount

In the recount on Saturday, of votes cast for the two closely contested town offices at the Arlington town election on March 7, one of the original winners gained votes, while the other elected candidate lost ballots, but the ultimate result was the same—with the two men voted in on election day favored by the recount. It took the registrars of voters most of the day Saturday to make the recount, with 12,055 ballots involved.

Thomas J. O'Neill, who was re-elected by only one vote over Thomas R. Rawson, for the Board of Public Works, gained fifty votes on the recount. Marcus L. Sorrentino, who topped George A. Harris for Selectman by 31 votes at the election, had his lead cut down to 16 by the recount.

Harris Thanks His Vote Backers

It was a close contest. Mr. Sorensen's group has won by 16 votes and according to records, there are 27 votes under dispute. I am content to let it rest at that.

I have always felt that people had a right to disagree with me without necessarily hating me. I have retained to myself the right to disagree with others without hating them. It seems to me that is a type of healthy dispute that could and should exist within the town.

I may have honest disagreements of opinion with other persons, but I will stand up and will continue to defend that which I believe to be right and oppose that which I believe to be wrong. I think that what this town needs is more people who will give their best judgement to the problems of the town. These problems should not be determined on any consideration except specifically what is for the best interest of the town.

Many of our problems are not decided solely on their merits. Some times, not always, but too many times, decisions have been made on the basis of personalities. It shouldn't be that way.

I wish Mr. Sorensen success. I thank the thousands who supported me for Selectman, many of whom want me to carry on to a clean-cut decision. I decline to

P.T.A. Council To Present Three Concerts

The Arlington Council of Parents-Teacher Associations will present three concerts in classical ballet at the Arlington Junior High School East Auditorium on Friday evening April 8, at 7:30 and on Saturday April 9th at 10:30 A. M. and 2:30 P. M.

Harriet Hootor will present her original ballet "Alice in Wonderland" with music by Eric Coates. This production is being considered for television.

Through the cooperation of the school department, a synopsis of the story of "Alice in Wonderland" has been given to the children so that they might more readily follow the sequence of this classic ballet.

The first part of the program will consist of a number of diversions, one of which will be a unique presentation of the "Sabre Dance". In this short ballet the dancers are not seen and only the whirling sabres are visible to the audience.

Miss Hootor has the distinction of being one of America's foremost ballerinas and this original ballet of "Alice in Wonderland" was created especially for the Arlington School Children.

press the contest farther.

Sincerely,
George A. Harris

Pre School P.T.A. Lecture Wednesday

Arlington will be joining in an national educational movement of Paramount importance next Wednesday evening, March 30, 1949, when the Arlington pre-school P. T. A. sponsors an outstanding lecture on "mental health of the Pre-School child".

Dr. Clemens E. Benda will be the speaker at the joint meeting of all pre-school P. T. A. groups at Robbins Library Hall at 8:00 o'clock. Dr. Benda is an instructor at the Harvard Medical School, Psychiatrist at the Massachusetts General Hospital, director of research and clinical psychiatry at the Fernald School of Waverly, and consultant in neuro-psychiatry at the Symmes Hospital.

The recent report of the Hoover Commission has sharpened national interest in mental health. The report calls mental health the greatest national problem with forty percent of our national budget being expended on such matters. Fifty percent of all men lost from service during World War II were lost because of personality disorders and thirty-seven percent of all rejections were for mental reasons.

One of the greatest problems to be faced is the lack of fully qualified psychiatrists. There are only 4500 in the whole country. Dr. Benda is one of the most distinguished psychiatrists in New England and the committee in charge are deeply honored and grateful that he is giving his time to the Pre-School Mothers for this Lecture.

The meeting will open promptly at 8:00 o'clock. Mrs. Samuel R. Carlisle will preside. Mrs. Joseph Coppinger will head the committee on refreshments.

Former High School Student Honored At Wilbrahm College

Richard M. Raia, a former student at the Arlington High School, is rated as one of the "Campus Leaders" at Wilbrahm Academy, Wilbrahm, Mass.,

where he is now attending school. This honor is sighted in the following way in the school paper, "The Atlas". "Before entering Wilbrahm, Richie Raia attended Arlington High School where he excelled in football and baseball for which sports he earned three varsity school letters in each. Here at Wilbrahm, Richie's ability as a football player was evident this past fall when he played for our varsity team. He is excellent not only in sports, but in academic achievements as well. Ever since Richie came here this fall, he has been on both the Headmasters list and the Honor roll. He is, in addition to his studies, a member of the Wilbrahm Student Council. Although Richie has been here since only this past fall, he has won many friends through his ability and enthusiasm".

Richard is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Raia now living at 129 Thorndike street, Brookline.

LITTLE THINGS about the Stars

NEW YORK, N.Y.—Suppose you are a radio producer! You want the best seven Hollywood stars you can think of to rotate on a new dramatic show! You want their talents well varied.

Stanwyck ... one of 7

This actually was the case of a producer last fall. Here were his selections: Humphrey Bogart, Bette Davis, Ray Milland, Gregory Peck, Ginger Rogers, Barbara Stanwyck, Robert Taylor! He signed them, every one, and you now hear them alternately on CBS' Sunday (6 p.m. EST) "Family Hour of Stars." This program has a second point of interest: its stories are selected on the basis of their adaptability to radio, not on name value alone. Many of the dramas are originals written especially for the show.

ALL-AMERICA

NBC's Monday night "Cavalcade of America" is just that. It is probably the "most American" program in radio. Its stories stick 100 per cent. Stateside. They range in content from Revolutionary days to the very present. From Washington Irving to Robert E. Lee to Babe Ruth; from the story of yellow fever to the modern day medical revolution; the "RH" blood factor, the latter one of the show's most stirring broadcasts. February 21 the program goes back early American—to the amazing story of one, Robert Stobo, a spy for young (Major) George Washington in the French and Indian War. Title: "Unheroic Hero." Star: Douglas Fairbanks, Jr.

Fairbanks, Jr. ... spy stuff

EMCEE FOR "WE"

A group of radio producers recently named burly, curly-haired Dan Seymour the announcer with the "most American voice." The winning qualities: eager perennial enthusiasm—"like the peppy manager of a winning football team." Top producers shun a "classy" voice in an announcer. Enunciation must of all things, be clear, only, basically grammatical. Seymour, with an Amherst college degree and a wife, Louise, started in radio at the age of 20, one year later was announcing the biggest show of its time, Major Bowes on CBS. This month Seymour won another important job—emcee of CBS' hep Tuesday night radio-television airer, "We the People." Dan's familiar with the work. He's announced the show the last six years.

Very Little Things

Ozzie Nelson, crooner-bandsman-comic, star of "Ozzie & Harriet," Sunday nights, NBC, is another who couldn't make his college glee club: Outstanding example: Fred Waring... You might detect a familiar ring in the voice of "Angie," new character on NBC's afternoon "When a Girl Marries." Reason: Mary Jane Higby, star "Joan Davis" of the show, liked the role, auditioned for it, now plays both parts. A newspaper interviewer got a shock when she asked Lucille Ball, star of CBS' new comedy "My Favorite Husband" (Fri. nites), to name her first Broadway job. Lucille answered literally: "Soda jerk in a drug store."

Mary Jane Higby ... "Angie," too

School Committee Votes To Return To Two Sessions

At last week's meeting of the Arlington School Committee, it was voted to return the Arlington public schools, both elementary and junior high, to the two session schedule, beginning on Monday, April 4th.

The lack of lunchroom facilities at the schools was conceded to be a definite handicap to the one session plan, and since the present schedule was adopted at the request of a majority of the parents, with the understanding that it would be for January, February and March of this year only, and no vote was taken by the school board at its meeting Tuesday night, the two session schedule will automatically return on Monday, April 4.

The Boy Scouts of America is organized not only in the United States, but in Alaska, Hawaii, Canal Zone, Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands and Guam. Troops or Packs are also found in foreign countries where there are American boys.

Scouting for boys is carried on through more than 70,000 Cub Packs, Scout Troops, or Senior Scout Units.

Red Cross Week To Begin In Arlington On Sunday

Red Cross week will be observed in Arlington beginning Sunday, with volunteer workers in every section of the community stepping up their efforts to put the town over the top in the annual Red Cross quota this year set at $10,500.

Although the public response thus far has been described as "gratifying" by John E. McAvoy, campaign chairman, he emphasized that the entire success of the drive would depend on the co-operative efforts of both solicitors and residents during the coming week.

In past drives, Arlington has always gone over the top, and Mr. McAvoy expressed hope that the town this year also would keep up its record of being among the first communities to report success in the Metropolitan area. The drive will continue throughout the current month.

Mr. McAvoy has appealed to all Arlington residents anxious to serve as volunteer solicitors to get in touch with their precinct chairmen.

He also asks that town residents who plan to contribute, but who do not expect to be at home when solicitors call, either to mail their contributions to the Red Cross headquarters in the Old Town Hall at 629 Massachusetts Avenue, or to deliver them at that address.

The headquarters office is open daily, except Sunday, from 9:30 a. m. until 5 p. m.

In addition to newspaper accounts, residents of Arlington will be kept in touch with progress of Red Cross campaign by "thermometers" posted on the lawn of the First Parish Church in Arlington Center, at Browne's Drug Store in East Arlington and at Wanamaker's Hardware Store in the Heights.

Mr. McAvoy has arranged a number of house parties to promote the campaign, and has appointed a representative group to solicit funds throughout the community.

Division and precinct chairmen he has appointed include:

Mrs. Herbert W. Reed, who has been branch chairman for a number of years in Arlington; Miss Isabel E. Hallett of 12 Lincoln street, associate and residential chairman; John H. Powell, 54 Orvis road, advanced gifts chairman; Philert Pellegrini, 8 Mary street, business and industry chairman; Miss Caroline H. Higgins, 15 Pleasant street, special groups chairman; William F. Homer, 9 Ravine street, publicity chairman; Edward P. Clark, Arlington Five Cents Savings Bank, campaign treasurer, and the following precinct chairmen:

The Rev. Warren N. Bixby, 38 Marathon street, Precinct one; Paul Griffin, 30 Magnolia street, Precinct two; Mrs. H. Lee Shumway, 24 Allen street, Precinct three; Mrs. Kenneth Lane, 26 Mott street, Precinct four; James P. Walsh, 37 Beacon street, Precinct five; Miss Dorothy Greene, 46 Jason street, and Mrs. Ralph B. Lancaster, 75 Winchester road co-chairmen of Precinct six; Mrs. William Goudie, 135 Franklin street and Mrs. Frank J. Nehring, 19 Newton road, co-chairmen of Precinct seven; Mrs. Dana H. Bacon, 51 Lockeland avenue, and Mrs. R. O. James 55 Lockeland avenue, co-chairmen of Precinct eight; Mrs. C. Edward Wilkins, 23 Draper avenue, Precinct nine; Mrs. H. A. McGovern, 37 Coolidge road, and Miss Joan Juffre, 35 Orvis road, co-chairmen of Precinct 10; Mrs. Harry Preston, 32 Edmund road, and Leslie J. Herzog, 355 Summer street, co-chairmen of Precinct 11; Mrs. Spencer Dormitzer, 38 Cliff street and Mrs. Allen Cowies, 210 Park avenue, co-chairmen of Precinct 12; Mrs. Fred E. Crumby, 72 Madison avenue, and Mrs. John Shewan of 14 Westmoreland avenue, co-chairmen of Precinct 13, and Mrs. Hallem T. Ring 163 Hillside avenue, Precinct 14.

Bridge Party

FEATURED SOLOIST

Jacqueline Miller, popular coloratura Soprano soloist of Arlington, will be the featured artist at the Regis Holy Cross combined concert, to be given on Sunday evening, March 27, at the Copley Plaza Hotel.

OUT OF GODFREY'S TEABAG

GODFREY: What does your husband do?

GUEST: He's a dental technician. He makes false teeth.

GODFREY: It's so much more dignified to say he's an oral engineer. He builds bridges.

GUEST: I'm a former tree surgeon.

GODFREY: Tree doctor, eh? Could have used you last week down on my farm. I had a terrific pain in my pine.

GODFREY: Are you a good cook? GUEST: I don't get any complaints. GODFREY: When a woman is a BAD cook, her husband is in no CONDITION to complain.

GUEST: I operate a slenderator machine.

GODFREY: Slenderator? One of those machines that make things thinner? How does the darn thing operate?

GUEST: It works by electrical impulses. It contracts and relaxes the muscles at the rate of 22 times per minute. Why don't you come in and try it?

GODFREY: I can't. I don't know if my muscles are A.C. or D.C.

GODFREYANA: One thing you can say for girdles... they sure get around. I knew a gal who had so much rubber in her girdle that everytime she sat down she bounced five feet in the air!

He is also a member of the Arlington Red Devils. A fall wedding is planned.

LOCAL MAN FETED UPON RETIREMENT

On Thursday evening March 17, 1949 a dinner in honor of Mr. Oman E. Bennett of 125 Hemlock street, Arlington was given at the Hotel Continental in Cambridge by his associates at the Arlington Five Cents Savings Bank upon the occasion of his retirement from active service. Mr. Bennett retired under the provisions of the Savings Banks Employees Retirement Association, of which the Arlington Five Cents Savings Bank has for some years been a member.

In congratulating Mr. Bennett, Mr. Edward P. Clark, Vice President and Treasurer called attention to the contribution which he had made to the Bank and to the community through the years and recalled the large group of friends which Mr. Bennett had made not only among his associates but throughout the town.

Mr. Thomas G. Swan will undertake Mr. Bennett's duties at the main office at Pleasant Street.

ARLINGTON WINS 4-3 IN OVERTIME

Following a five minute overtime and a sudden death period, a greatly superior Arlington High team notched the deciding goal that beat Hill House, of New Haven, Conn., 4 to 3, at the Providence Auditorium, on the evening of Thursday, March 17, where over six thousand fans took in the opening quarter finals of the New England Interscholastic hockey playoff.

It was a three-way play from Ed Robson to Bill Leary who then set up Ed Meehan behind the defense that found Meehan rifling home the clincher which puts Arlington, 1947 champion, in the semifinal tomorrow night at 7:30 p. m., against West Haven, which was fortunate enough to erase Framingham 2 to 1.

To give one some idea of how far ahead the Spy Ponders were in class it might be noted that Goalie Jim Aikell of Arlington had to make only eight stops while Herb Hubbell at the other end made 27.

Hill House, a strictly defensive team, just ringed its goal to lighten Hubbell's task and they accordingly were a tough group to beat. Framingham also clearly outplayed its opponent, who used similar tactics and Goalie Joe Carroll for West Haven was easily the young wonder of the night with his performance.

Birthday Greetings To Mrs. Clara Bacon

The Arlington Press joins the many friends and relatives of Mrs. Clara (Hoppin) Bacon, in extending birthday congratulations and best wishes to the latter on the occasion of her 97th birthday. Surrounded by her friends and family. Mrs. Bacon was on Sunday the guest of honor at a small birthday party held in her honor at the home of her son, Norval E. Bacon, 207 Appleton Street, Arlington Heights. Mrs. Bacon is remarkably spry and well for one of her many years.

The widow of the Rev. Edward E. Bacon, formerly minister of the Congregational Church in Old Saybrook, Conn., she lived in that community for many years previous to coming to Arlington 41 years ago. She now resides with Mrs. George Winner, at 11 Jason street, Arlington.

Mentally keen, Mrs. Bacon clearly recalls when she was a girl of 13, attending the funeral of Abraham Lincoln, at Oak Ridge Cemetery, in Springfield, Illinois. A native of New York state, she has another son, Alfred Bacon, of Lewiston, Maine; two daughters, Mrs. W. H. W. Bicknell, of Provincetown, and Mrs. Charles Stanford, of Albany, N. Y. There are three grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

Gilbert And Sullivan Club To Present "Waltz Dream"

In the final stages of production is the "Waltz Dream" to be presented by the Gilbert and Sullivan Club of Arlington High School on April 1 and 2 at the Junior High School East auditorium. This year, deviating from its usual practice of presenting an operetta by William S. Gilbert and Sir Arthur Sullivan, the club is giving a modern operetta by Oscar Straus. Presented in three acts the story of the "Waltz Dream" concerns, in part a beautiful princess, destined by the King to marry a man she does not love. This gay, romantic operetta is destined to be another great success for Gilbert and Sullivan Club, because in addition to a charming story, the hitting waltzes blending with voices of the singers will make the "Waltz Dream" a memorable musical event.

All seats are reserved and will go on sale, Monday, March 21, at the high school. Prices are $1.00 or 80c.

Park Avenue Congregational Church Observes Golden Fete

The Park Avenue Congregational church, Arlington Heights, celebrated the golden anniversary of the recognition of the church under the Congregational charter with a special service held Sunday evening, at 7:30, in the church auditorium.

Herbert A. Snow, a charter member, and chairman of the golden jubilee committee, gave a very illuminating resume of the history of the church. Rev. Milton F. Schadegg, the present pastor, told of the present-day activities of the church, and the Rev. Dr. Dwight C. Smith, minister of Mt. Vernon church, Boston spoke on the church of the future. The full choir of the church rendered several selections appropriate to the occasion.

Mrs. T. Gordon Smith officiated at the organ. She was organist of the church from 1926 to 1941, and was instrumental in starting the first church choir.

The service was followed by a social hour and refreshments held in the church parish hall. The refreshments were in charge of Mrs. Carl Thoren, with several charter members acting as pourers. Old snapshots and programs of past events and affairs concerning the church history, which were contributed or loaned for the occasion proved of great interest. A complete history of the church, compiled and written by Mr. Snow with photographs of the present personnel, were available to those attending the celebration.

NEW YORK, N.Y.—There are today, at latest count, 400-odd quiz shows on American radio stations. Twelve years ago there was none. The first quizmaster was Boston-born Dr. Craig Earl.

Prof. Quiz

... he's back idea for the first network quiz heard Earl speak, hired him for the job. Two years ago Earl retired from the craze he started, went farming. But he became restless, perhaps from listening to young wise fellows filling his roles. Anyway, quiet philosophical, "Professor Quiz" is back again. Check the time with your radio log.

MAN BEHIND "PORTIA"

From youth small-town (Durant, Okla.) Hoyt Allen planned to get into bigtime radio. He made it. At 34 he lives in smart Manhattan, edits-directs two of the top-rated network radio shows: NBC's afternoon "Portia Faces Life," CBS' thriller "Perry Mason." Allen studied journalism (most thing to radio) at Oklahoma U. was graduated, quiet philosophical, left for Chicago with $3. He managed on that six weeks until he found a radio job. At 21 he was WLS' "Pokey Martin," a venerable spinner of tall tales. When he got to writing-acting 17 shows a week, he quit, worked his way to Europe, departed broke one jump ahead of Hitler. He went back, in the U. S. Army, a radar expert. At 30 Allen hit the jackpot in his business—network directing in New York.

... he made it

George Keane

... "Bill Roberts" Keane, New York City born, young (32), divides his time between radio and the Broadway stage. He's worked with such stars as Katharine Cornell and Marlene Dietrich. He was featured in the musical "Park Avenue," more recently concluded a long run in the hit Broadway show "Brigadoon."

Very Little Things

Years ago John Griggs, "Roger Elliot" of the Sunday afternoon radio show "House of Mystery" (Mutual), formed a society to further the visionary idea of sending a rocket to the moon. Now he shies from the project. "Scientists are so far ahead of anything we imagined," says he, "I am unable to discuss the subject." When he ran around a table in a radio studio twenty times, Humphrey Bogart wasn't nuts. He was preparing for a realistic scene (a prize fighter badly licked) on meticulous "Family Hour of Stars" (Sunday, CBS). Jack Carson has talent for other than playing dumb and being a radio comic Friday nights, CBS. He can play almost any musical instrument by ear.

State House Bill Filed To Correct Summer St. Hazard

This bill, filed by Representative Henry E. Keenan, was given a public hearing before the committee on Highways at the State House, Boston. It was explained to the committee that Summer

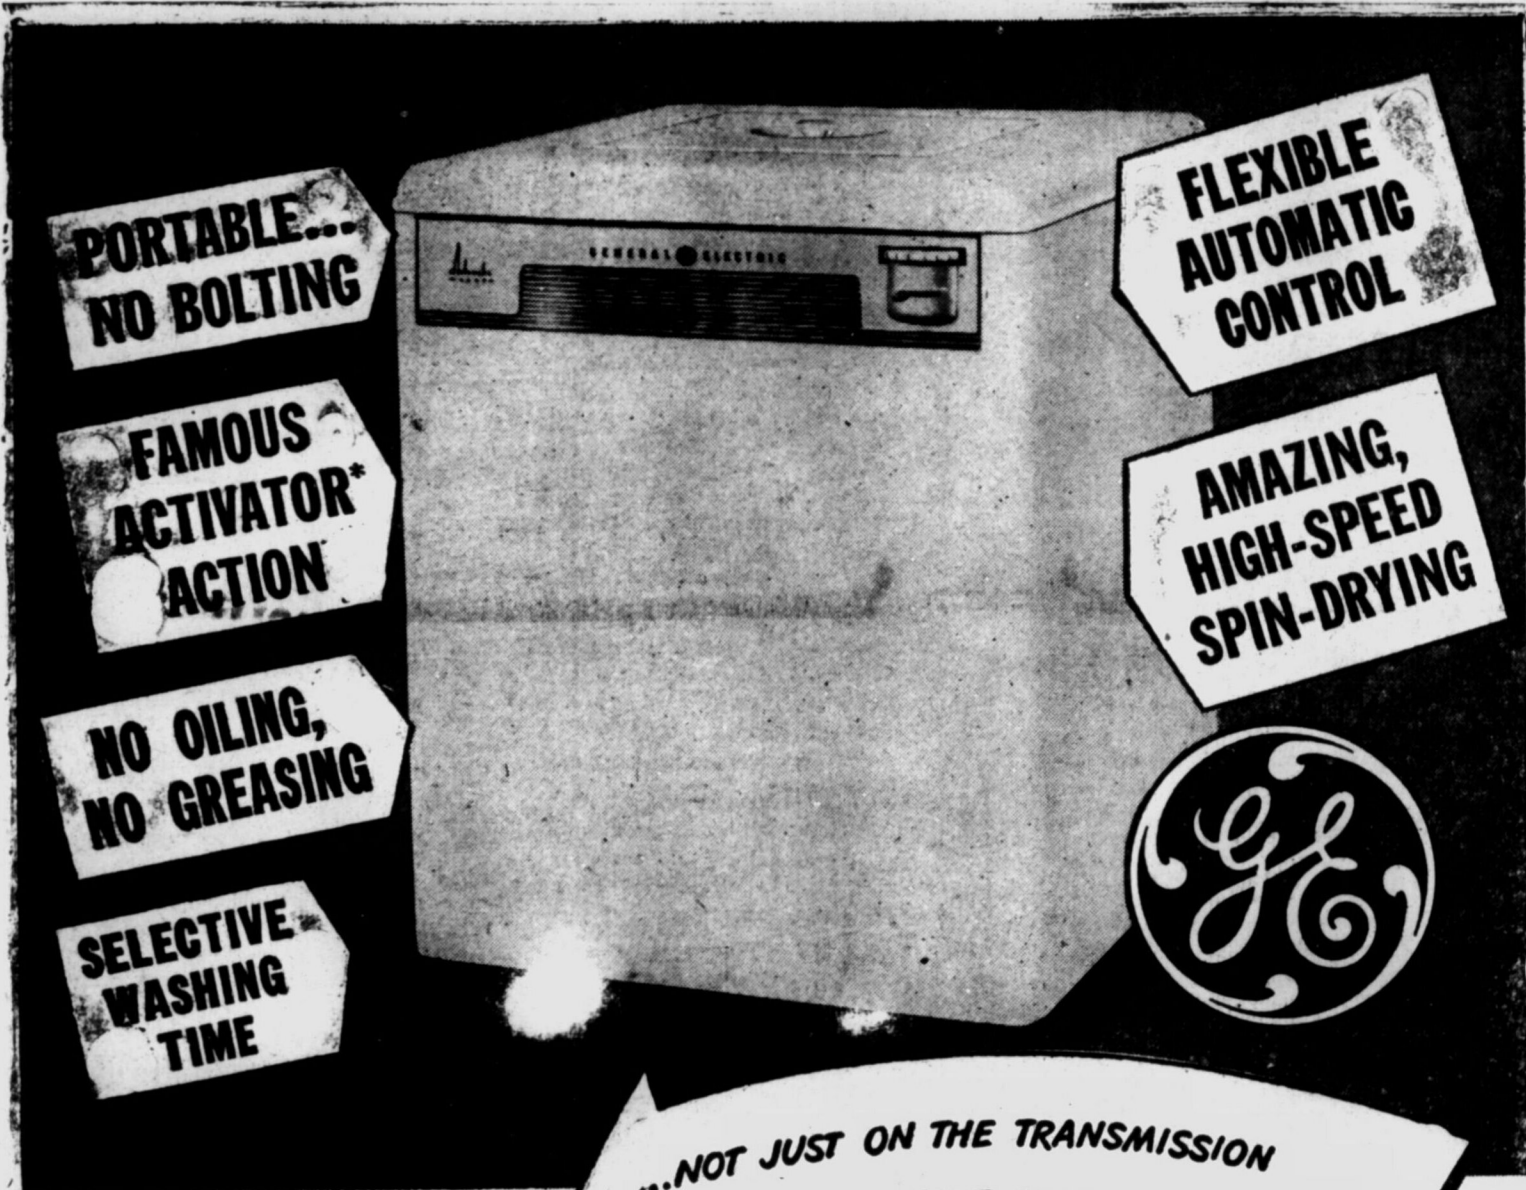

Street Boulevard from Brattle Street to the Lexington Line is a State Highway taken over by the state in 1916. The highways was to have been 50 feet in width allowing 30 foot road service and 10 feet sidewalks on each side. The highway has not been fully completed and has resulted, due to the build up of this area, in a traffic hazard for both automobiles and pedestrians. With the building of the new playground at the corner of Forest Street and Summer Street, an additional traffic hazard has been created, and the same holds true for the area around Park Avenue Extension near the Pierce School.

Selectman Joseph Peterson, representing the Board of Selectmen, appeared and indicated that the board was in favor of the highway being resurfaced and widened to its proper width. Also appearing in favor of the bill was John Murphy of the Board of Public Works and Richard Ducher of the Planning Board. Mr. Percival Richardson represented the Town Meeting Organization from precincts 11 and 13, and Mr. Lawrence Corcoran of the Arlington Heights Improvement Association was present. Also appearing in the favor of the bill were, Representative Hollis M. Gott and Representative Charles Ferguson of Lexington.

The committee has taken the matter under advisement and will report at an early date as to their action on the same.
